Liner notes

Hello everyone!

Thank you for reading the 10th volume of this series.

We've finally come to the last volume!

It's been about 3 and a half years since this was serialized... It felt like a very long and yet also very short period of time.

During this time, I've received a lot of letters. I apologize for the lack of response, but I do read every single one of them. Just the thought of my readers taking the time to write out these letters... Sometimes, I read these letters after drawing the coloured pages, I do get a little emotional and teary from that. Every letter and word on those letters are my treasures. Thank you everyone!

Below are the questions that readers sent me via mail or twitter, I'm going to answer them here.

The first one is, "Did Uri and Sensei's names come from some anime character or voice actor?"

No, no! This is purely coincidental! When I first saw this question, I was shocked. I've heard of that anime and that character, but I've never actually watched it, much less know that my character and that voice actor have the same name. If this bothers the fans of that anime, I hereby apologize. These two characters' names originate from somewhere else!

(By the way, this isn't based off any person in real life. Sensei's hairstyle is based off a very popular idol.)

The second question is, "Which character do you like?"
Hmmm... Every one of these characters is a product of my imagination, so I can't say I prefer any one of them...
However, I guess I like Uri the best. It's quite easy and relaxing to draw this character.
(Koran and Minefujisensei are pretty easy to draw too.)
Sometimes, people think that I'm like Uri, but unfortunately, we're completely opposite. I'm not cute or innocent... It feels weird to compare myself. However, my editor did tell me this once, "You're just as weird as Uri."

Well then, back to the main topic.
"Rinkyon Rensai" does seem to have an abrupt ending, but it has ended. The story has actually been winding down since the 7th volume. It was originally my decision to end the story, but as the conclusion got closer, I got increasingly reluctant to part with these characters. The editorial department did tell me that I could continue drawing on, and that made me hesitate and wonder if I should complete it. However, I feel that Uri and Sensei's relationship is already very solid, so I decided to finish it here. Even though I'm saying this, I still want to continue this story, so as long as I can overcome problems like time and people (?), I'd like to try my hand at drawing extras and other characters!

That's why, these liner notes (while it's called liner notes, I haven't exactly talked about anything substantial) are also going to be the last there is. While drawing "Kinkyori Renai", I was able to meet a lot of famous people. First, I'd like to thank my assistants. This work wasn't a solo effort but a group one. Thank you for helping me without complaints even when the situation was dire. Next, I'd like to thank you readers. Before drawing this work, I wasn't confident in myself, but thanks to all of you, I was able to go through with it. I'm thankful for your companionship for these 3 and a half years! I'll use this time to gather more experience for my next work. There will be a character similar to Uni, so please take care of me then as well. I love you guys!

Thank you, everyone!
